CONGRESS GIVES HIGH HONOR TO 21 ARMY HEROES

Coveted Congressional Medal Goes To Two Officers and 19 Men

DARING DEEDS RELATED IN AWARDED HONOR TO MEN

Yankees Risk Lives To Save Comrades Wounded In Great War

(Associated Press Telegram)

Washington, Feb. 4.—Award of congressional medals of honor, the highest American military decoration, to two officers and 19 enlisted men of the army in France, was announced today by the war department. Only three of the medals had been awarded previously for service in the great war.

All awards were upon recommendation by General Pershing. By act of congress the medal can be given only for conspicuous gallantry and intrepidity above and beyond the call of duty in action.

Many distinguished service crosses for gallantry in action, and distinguished service medals given for conspicuous service of any character in connection with the army, have been awarded heretofore but the wearers of the medal of honor constitute a special roll of honor. It carries with it gratitudes and certain privileges.

The cross and distinguished service medal can be awarded by any independent commander in the field. The medal of honor is given by the secretary of war on the recommendation of the military commanders each recommendation being reviewed by a board of officers to make certain that an unusual act of heroism is commemorated.

Captain Marcellus H. Chnes (deceased), Denver, Colo., 35th infantry, who led the battalion he commanded forward against a machine gun cross-fire during a waist-deep across a stream to reach the enemy and crawling on his hands to follow. He died of his wounds.

Privates Jesse N. Funk, Calahan, Colo., and Charles D. Barger, Stotts City, Mo., Company, 10th infantry, for rescuing, under fire, 500 yards in front of the American line, making two trips as stretcher-bearers under machine gun fire.

Sergeant Reider Waalkers, no address, Company A, 10th machine gun battalion, for rescuing two wounded men from a burning tank under artillery and machine gun fire.

Sergeants Alan Louis Eggers, Summit, N. J., 10th infantry, and John Cridland Latham, next of kin, residing at Westmoreland, England, machine gun company, 10th infantry, and Corporal Thomas E. O'Shea, Summit, N. J., for rescuing an officer and two men from a damaged American tank and by means of the machine gun from the tank standard, of the enemy all day from a shell-hole within the enemy lines. Corporal O'Shea died of wounds.

Sergeant James I. Mestrovich, Fresno, Cal., Company C, 11th infantry, for rescuing his wounded company commander, 30 yards in front of the line. He died since.

Private Frank Gaffney, Lockport, N. Y., Company G, 10th infantry, for going forward with an automatic rifle when all other members of his squad had been killed, attacking and capturing an enemy machine gun, killing the crew, bombing several dugouts and killing four of the enemy with pistol fire.

Sergeant Harold I. Johnson, Denver, and Private David E. Barkeley, San Antonio, Tex., Company A, 35th infantry, for rescuing a driver Meuse to obtain information as to the enemy's position on the opposite side.

FINDS POSTOFFICE SHORT OF HELP

The matter of improving the local postoffice service has been undertaken by the Chamber of Commerce, and a comparative survey of Newark and adjoining cities, of equal size, has been made.

The survey shows that while Newark is generally conducting a far larger business than the other towns, that the local postoffice has less employees by four than that of the other towns. Postmaster Mercer stated that he had asked for further help from Washington but had not obtained it.

The matter was then referred to Congressmen Ashbrook and Postmaster General Burleson.

NEGROES LEAVE MARION AS WARNING IS POSTED

(Associated Press Telegram)

Marion, O., Feb. 4.—Many negroes are reported to have left Marion last night and early today following the posting of warnings ordering them to leave the city.

The warnings were posted following attacks, supposedly by negroes, on the city yesterday. The mayor, William Glick, all following threats to lynch him. Fearing violence, city officials yesterday ordered the saloons closed.

NINE SHIPS SAIL

(Associated Press Telegram)

Washington, Feb. 4.—Departure from France of nine ships which will dock at New York, Philadelphia or Newport News in the next three weeks with approximately 400 officers and 2,500 men from the American expeditionary force, was announced today by the war department.

GERMANS CLAIM RIGHT TO KEEP HER COLONIES

Basel, Monday, Feb. 3.—Speaking before the Colonial Society at Berlin today, Matthias Erzberger, one of the German armistice commissioners, protested against Germany being deprived of her colonies, according to a dispatch received here from the German capital. He is reported to have said:

"Depriving Germany of all her colonies would contain a deadly germ for the league of nations even before that league is born. President Wilson's program gives Germany an invaluable right to her colonial territories."

CROWN PRINCE ASKS DECREE OF DIVORCE

Zurich, Feb. 4.—Frederick William Hohenzollern, eldest son of the German emperor, according to a Berlin dispatch to the Munich Zeitung, has instituted proceedings for a divorce.

Frederick William now is an exile from Germany on the Dutch island of Wieringen, having fled to Holland soon after his father sought asylum there. The family of the former crown prince, according to reports, has remained at Potsdam.

Frederick William was married in June, 1905 to the Grand Duchess Cecile of Mecklenburg, a sister of the queen of Denmark. They have five children, the youngest, Princess Alexandra having been born in 1915.

DEMANDS MADE BY ENGINEERS

Want Meal Time Asked by Tube Men Who Have Quit Work—Threaten Larger Strike.

(Associated Press Telegram)

London, Feb. 3.—The associated societies of locomotive engineers notified the London district railway of their intention to call out the members of the societies on its lines Tuesday morning with a view to enforcing the same meal time stipulation that the tube men were demanding.

The secretary said that if the demand was not effective the steam train engineers and firemen of the railways in the London area, which also have electric traction, will be called out and subsequently, if necessary, all the societies "43,000 members throughout the country would be ordered to cease work."

The executive council of the Amalgamated Society of Engineers today appealed to all members in the London area to ignore the decision of recent unofficial meetings in favor of a strike.

LONDON WORKERS WALK TO WORK; WAITERS QUIT

London, Feb. 4.—Profiting by its experience on Monday when the city awoke to find transportation hampered by the strike in the tubes, London started early to walk today. By day-break the streets were well filled with men and women walking from the suburbs and the buses, when they started at seven o'clock, were crowded.

Almost everyone carried a tube stick, who was urging the girl conductors to strike.

The strike of the waiters in the west end hotels has been only partially successful. While some waiters remained at their tasks, many failed to appear this morning. Breakfasts were served at a hurried pace and hotel men declare they will fight the strike and that they are now recruiting new forces.

Thousands of Londoners who because of the shortage of domestic help during the war had become hotel dwellers, either went without breakfast this morning or were compelled to be satisfied with a cup of tea or coffee and a slice of bread. This situation was the result of the strike of the hotel workers which has partly broken up the kitchen staffs and the table service in the large hotels of the west end of the city.

The kitchen staffs which are largely made up of foreigners, demand an eight-hour day and a twenty five per cent increase in wages. The waiters demand the abolition of the system under which their tips are pooled and divided, a commission on the tips and a minimum wage of $2 weekly for women and $3 for men. The smaller hotels were able to attend to their permanent guests but in the larger ones, with accommodations for 1,000 or more guests each, long lines of patrons stood outside the dining rooms waiting vainly to be served. The hotel men declare they will not submit to the strikers' demand and that new recruits for the establishments are being recruited.

PREDICT LABOR SHORTAGE WHEN SPRING WORK OPENS UP HERE

Contractors and Material Men Are Optimistic Over Outlook in Newark—Material Price to Remain at Top Level, Is Belief

The consensus of opinion at the meeting held last night at the Chamber of Commerce, was that the outlook is optimistic for great business activity with the opening of spring.

A large representation of the contractors, builders, dealers in building supplies and of the home building associations met to discuss the problem confronting the city to provide work for the large number of unemployed.

The meeting had been called with a view of stimulating the building activity, and to encourage those who contemplated new buildings, repairs, or remodeling to begin at once.

As the largest factor to retard building was the high cost of material, this question became the most discussed one at the meeting.

All were strong in their view, that there would be no recession in prices, rather that they would go higher. Based on trade journals of the various branches, it is shown that the renewed activity will cause the supply of material to be far less than the demand, and this will continue the higher prices. The same is true of the public improvements.

GREECE DEMANDS GREEK ISLANDS AS SHARE OF SPOILS

Venizelos Says England Offered Cyprus to Greeks to Enter War

WILSON GIVEN OVATION BY SOCIALIST DEPUTIES

Cheer His Reference To League of Nations in Speech in Chamber

(Associated Press Telegram)

Paris, Feb. 4.—The supreme council at its meeting today agreed that questions in the statement of Premier Venizelos concerning Greek territorial interests in the peace settlement should be referred to a commission of experts whose duty it would be to take recommendations of a just settlement.

The commission will be composed of two representatives each from the United States, the British empire, France and Italy.

(Associated Press Telegram)

Paris, Monday, Feb. 3.—Premier Venizelos of Greece, who is asking the peace conference for all the Greek islands in the Mediterranean, said to the Associated Press today that he felt sure England would not refuse to give Cyprus to Greece. The British government, he said, offered the island to former King Constantine in order to induce Greece to enter the war. "How could England refuse Cyprus to us, who entered the war willingly without asking anything but trusting entirely to the justice of the allies?" the premier asked.

President Wilson was given an unusual reception by socialist members at the chamber of deputies, Monday afternoon. They tried to show Mr. Wilson that his ideas were their own. When Captain Mantoux, the official interpreter, who translated President Wilson's address reached that part of the speech in which Mr. Wilson spoke of the society of nations, the socialists rose, shouting: "Long live the society of nations." Some of them adding: "Down with Wilson!"

President Wilson has several appointments for today, including a call from representatives of the Bible Society and visits from some Republican congressmen who have arrived in Paris. He is determined, however, that nothing shall prevent him from attending to the duties of the commission of which he is chairman and which now is engaged in perfecting the scheme for the creation of a society of nations.

He is, therefore, concentrating his attention upon that work. While less than two weeks remain before the date set for his return to Washington, it is still regarded as within the range of possibility for the great project, not only to be reported from the commission but also for the peace conference in plenary sessions to ratify the agreement and thus put it fairly in the way to be registered in treaty form within the time limit. This would make a record for international conferences, but the Paris gathering already has done that in several instances.

There is a growing feeling here that the treaty of peace should be speedily perfected, now that the principle of the society of nations and many of the details of its construction have been agreed upon.

HAWAIIAN VOLCANOE SPOUT SMOKE AND LAVA

(Associated Press Telegram)

Honolulu, Feb. 4.—Kilauea, one of the largest volcanoes in the world, situated on the eastern slope of Mauna Loa, has resumed activity after a period of comparative quiescence. The lava column is rising from the crater with unabated force and the fiery liquid mass has overflowed the rim of the pit in three places.

Mauna Loa also is showing signs of activity. Four columns of smoke and gas were observed today rising from the mountain's main crater on the summit. Little damage is expected, however, because of the barren nature of the surrounding country. Only in the event of an unprecedented eruption would the lowland plantations be in danger of being devastated.

Mauna Loa, on the island of Hawaii, has an altitude of about 14,000 feet. Kilauea is 4,000 feet high and its crater is nearly three miles in diameter.

SINN FEIN SUSPECT ESCAPES CUSTODY

(Associated Press Telegram)

London, Feb. 4.—A report was current this morning that Prof. Edward de Valera, the Sinn Fein leader, had escaped from his place of internment in England. No confirmation of the report was obtainable up to noon.

Prof. de Valera was taken in custody last spring when the British government rounded up a number of Sinn Fein leaders and interned them at a time when it was declared a plot backed by Germany was in progress of incubation in Ireland. Prof. de Valera denied any existence of the German plot. He has been held nevertheless with other Sinn Fein leaders and was still under detention when he was elected to parliament at the general elections in December and when last month he was chosen as a Sinn Fein.

CUTS RED TAPE TO PAY SOLDIERS

(Associated Press Telegram)

Washington, Feb. 4.—Thousands of claims for additional pay by discharged soldiers whose records were complete at the time they were mustered out, may be settled speedily by the war department under a ruling today by the comptroller of the treasury to the effect that these claims are to be readjusted without passing through the usual complicated auditing channels. The director of finance of the war department was authorized to adjust the claims when a construction of the law is not involved and the soldier's right is clearly defined.

More than 8,000 of these claims, some of them four months delayed are on file with the auditor of the war department, and many others are in the hands of the director of finance. Hundreds of complaints have been received from officers and men charging that pay of compensation for expenses was withheld unjustly. It was explained today that when a soldier is discharged, in some cases he is given only partial pay, owing to the absence of records showing the exact amount to which he is entitled. Later these records become available, but the additional payment is not made until the voucher for part pay cashed by the soldier on his discharge is cleared through the auditor of the war department. This procedure often required three or four months, and during this time the soldier's final payment is held up.

The comptroller's ruling today provides a short cut for the procedure by permitting the finance division of the war department to issue a supplemental statement to a soldier immediately. Upon this statement he can collect. The director of finance of the war department, in a letter made public today, explained the former problem as follows:

"As a result of the intensive campaign in which the army has been engaged since the beginning of the war, thousands of war-affected and other soldiers have returned from abroad without service records or other official papers on which proper payment to them should be based. These men have in many cases discharged the war department in a letter made public today, explained the former problem as follows:

BOLSHEVIKI OUTBREAK REPORTED IN CHILE

(Associated Press Telegram)

Santiago, Chile, Monday, Feb. 3.—The outbreak of Bolshevism in Chile, which is said to be spreading rapidly, has been reported by the Chilean government. The police are said to have captured documents showing a long list of names of houses which are to be sacked and destroyed by mobs.

OHIO ELECTRIC ASKS INCREASE IN FARES ON CITY CAR LINES

War Labor Board Urges Relief Pointing to Increased Wages and Other Costs of Operation—Would Sell Nine Tickets For 50 Cents.

"Chloroform the board of health and possibly we can get better sanitation results." That was the opinion that Councilman Frank Knauber expressed at a meeting of the city council last night after a discussion on health conditions in various parts of the city.

"If Health Officer Knauber would display as much energy in looking after his department as he does in devising ways and means to secure money we would have a better health administration." That was Councilman Lester Newkirk's opinion.

Then President R. L. Williams took a hand and advised the council to take the matter to the proper head. "If we are not getting the proper sanitation results," Williams said, "there's a remedy. Take it up with the state health board and I'll assure you that Newark will secure better service. We can save a lot of time and wind by going at the matter the right way, and the right way is to go to the fountain head."

Much more was said and it was all brought about by complaints of residents of various sections of the city who stated that sanitation conditions were bad and that it was almost unbearable. Especially is this true in the neighborhood of Texas complaints said where some of the residents were raising horses, although there is an ordinance against such practices.

Council met at 7:45 and all members were present except Councilman Keyes, who was reported ill and unable to leave his room. After the reading of the minutes the street committee reported on the straightening of the Beiderman alley in Fifth street giving the city engineer's opinion that it was not practicable at this time; it also reported on the extension of Central avenue and recommended the purchase of additional ground.

The public service committee in its report stated that sewage facilities were being investigated by the city engineer. The public safety committee reported on street lighting at the various railway crossings. The Pennsylvania representative went over the situation and the city engineer reported before the next meeting of council. The committee recommended that the south side of Cedar street be lighted and reported that it found nearly all of the streets well taken care of.

The mayor's report showed that the sum of $398 had been received in fines and licenses for January.

The city solicitor reported that the court of common pleas had found in favor of the city and that the writ of mandamus was refused in the action brought by Riley Couch, former chauffeur in the patrol station.

The solicitor also reported that the common pleas court had sustained the contention of the city in the suit of John V. Brown vs. the City, in the enforcement of an ordinance effecting the liquor business and which relates to the sale of bottle goods.

A petition signed by H. L. Jenkins and 200 others was presented to council asking for better protection at Oakwood avenue, where there are four railway tracks and which are crossed at least 3,000 times per day by people employed in the factories. The petition requested that a watchman be installed and that trains should not be allowed to hold the crossing over the time allowed by law. The petition will be sent to the state railway commission with the request that immediate action be taken.

Clerk Hamilton read a lengthy communication from the Ohio State Board of Commerce relating to taxation problems and relief which could be secured for cities the size of Newark. It also embodied a set of resolutions which had been adopted at the last meeting of the board, and recommended concerted action between the city and board.

A communication was read from the War Labor Board of Washington regarding conditions in the operation of street railway lines and the advanced cost of their maintenance and operation. A watchman be installed and that trains should not be allowed to hold the crossing over the time allowed by law. The petition will be sent to the state railway commission with the request that immediate action be taken.

The communication was signed by W. H. Hart, chairman.

EGGS AND BUTTER DROP IN PRICE

Dealers Paying 32 to 40 Cents For Eggs and 40 Cents For Butter.

Egg prices have taken a decided drop within the last few days in the wholesale markets. A drop of 7 cents was realized in one day in the New York market and there has been a drop of 18 cents everywhere within the last three days. The highest wholesale price for eggs this winter was 67 cents in December.

Eggs are wholesaling for 32, 33 and 40 cents today, and retailing for 45, 45 and 50 cents.

Butter is wholesaling for 40 cents and retailing for 45, 50 and 60 cents. Creamery is 52 cents.

MILK PRICES DROP WITH EGGS AND BUTTER

"Commuter down" Along with the drop in the price of other commodities—butter and eggs—the price of milk dropped one notch of the scale of prices. Milk which has been retailing for 14 cents a quart, today dropped to 13 cents.

Archangel, Monday, Feb. 3.—The Russian detachment operating with the Americans on the Pinega front retreated several versts yesterday after having unsuccessfully attempted an attack in which it encountered superior numbers of the Bolshevik forces.

Artillery and patrol actions continue on all sectors of the front.

RUSS OFFICERS FORCED TO SERVE BOLSHEVIKI

Advices to the allied intelligence department reveal some of the methods by which the Bolsheviks have been able to organize their army in such a way as to make possible the carrying on of a strong campaign in northern Russia.

The principle of these methods, according to information received from the intelligence branch in compelling the generals and staff officers in the old Russian army to serve the Bolsheviks by holding their families as hostages for the officers' conduct. Cases have occurred of officers' families being placed under close arrest, the women being treated as badly as the men. The position of former Russian officers in the ranks of the Soviet army is extremely difficult.

Military experts who have been forced to serve the Bolsheviks include some of the best men in field tactics, engineering and ordnance to be found in central Russia.

General mobilization of soldiers in districts is being vigorously carried out and attempts to avoid service are being severely dealt with.

Generally the army is growing stronger and although the new troops are far from being reliable, they nevertheless owing to the severe conditions which have been adopted form the main strength of the Bolshevik power.

PRIVILEGE TAX FOR CAR OWNERS

Legislature Proposes To Levy Such Tax To Increase State Revenue In Next Year.

(Associated Press Telegram)

Columbus, Feb. 4.—Resort to a privilege or occupation tax proposed to be made by the legislature in establishing new automobile license fees, it became known today, as a means of increasing state and municipal revenue. The state supreme court recently held that the state has authority to levy such a tax.

The bill now is in course of preparation by attorneys representing the good roads congress and will be ready for introduction within a couple of days. It will be made a part of a supplemental highway bill clarifying the duties of county commissioners and township trustees.

The automobile privilege tax "in lieu of the present $5 fee and will be on a graduated scale. The rates, it was said, will not be as high as those contemplated and had the classifications were not sustained by the supreme court, but they will be considerably higher than the present rate. The property valuation tax on automobiles will have to stand as at present because of the uniform rule constitutionally imposed by the board of five members as was reported yesterday. It is understood that abolition of the board will come up later in a separate bill as a party measure. Former Governor Willis made such recommendation during the campaign last fall.

If permitted under the constitution, the temperance committee of the legislature will insert in the prohibition enforcement bill a provision to charge fees of druggists, physicians, and others handling wine and alcohol and proprietary medicines, sufficient to pay all expenses of enforcing prohibition laws on this state.

It is said that a small fee charged for each permit would raise from $75,000 to $100,000, or enough to make the organization for enforcement of prohibition self-sustaining.

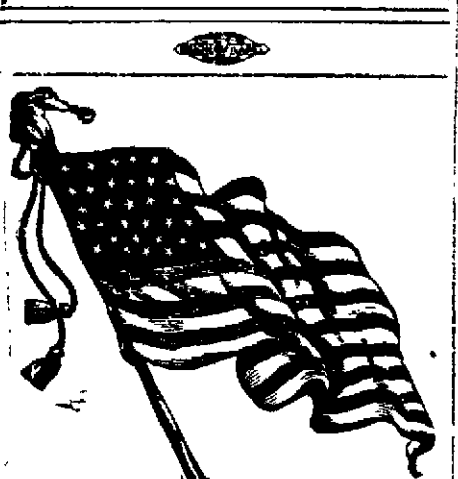

Wholesale grocers, flavoring extract manufacturers and retail grocers representatives appeared before the temperance committee today, suggesting amendments which would permit grocers as well as druggists to handle flavoring extracts and home remedies containing alcohol.

Frank L. Reggs, representing the flavoring extract manufacturers, said science had failed thus far to discover a non-alcoholic flavoring extract and that there was a standing reward offered by the National Association of Flavoring Extract manufacturers for a standard extract in which no alcohol is used.

SOCIAL CENTERS.

Home loving people often deplore the tendency of many men to seek the pleasure of club life when their day's work is over. The wife, who has been toilsomely performing household duties all day, thinks her husband might give her the benefit of his society.
There are well known "jitters" who scarcely spend an evening a week at their own firesides. Some are never happy except amid the rollicking influences of their boon companions. Others of less sporting nature still spend an enormous amount of time enjoying the friendly gossip of their regular hang outs.
It is a natural instinct, though in many cases leading to the waste of much time or worse. It has contributed largely to the hold of the saloons. With these places about to close, great numbers of men will be seeking other kinds of haunts.
There is a need in every community for wholesome social meeting places, where the general run of men will feel they are not being patronized or being given charity. Even the man who can't afford to pay should be helped to feel at home. Organizations like the Y. M. C. A., Knights of Columbus, etc., have done much, yet have not been able to meet the whole problem. It needs the substantial help of generous people, and a lot of tact to work it out.
Fraternal societies have done much to promote social facilities. Many orders that started primarily for insurance purposes, have developed the features of club life. It is a useful public service, and keeps many young men off the streets.
Club life ought never to reach the point where it interferes with a man's family relations. Many men are drawn by its pleasures to neglect their wives, and they fail to gain what they should from married life. The wise man spends the major part of his free time with his family.
Heaven will undoubtedly be full of surprises, consisting principally of mutual amazement at seeing each other there.
The war has upset many time honored traditions among them that of "the deadly cigarette."
Stomach shows may not last as long as they used to, but house shippers should never be worn out.
Where the high cost of living is concerned we put up with it, and plunk down for it.

NO TONIC LIKE HOOD'S

Sarsaparilla for a Time Like This. After Influenza, the Grip.
When purified blood, rebuilt strength and regulated bowels are essential. In the after-effects of influenza, the grip and other prostrating diseases, Hood's Sarsaparilla has remarkable health-helping effect.
It expels the poisons that have weakened and depleted the blood, causing pallor, anemia, flabby flesh and lax muscles. It is the standard blood purifier with a successful record of nearly fifty years.
Many people it is really astonishing how many—need a fine, gentle, easy cathartic in these trying times. We recommend Hood's Pills, used in the best families, and equally effective with delicate women or robust men. Eat to take, take to operate.

FARMERS AND THE FOOD PROBLEM.

(Providence Journal)
Mr. Hoover's review of the present food situation emphasizes the need of patience in dealing with the problem of disposing of what is now regarded as a surplus and of protecting the farmers and others who responded to the call of the government to produce more food. All calculations were made by the unexpected armistice; if the war had continued, nothing would have been said about over-production; but as it is the question before us is the marketing of the vast supplies on hand under conditions that will encourage the farmers to continue their programs for increased acreage and the production of more meat. Critics of the food administration are asserting that the next wheat harvest will be too large; Maine farmers are being advised to plant few potatoes, and in other lines of agriculture writers and speakers are calling attention to the risk of over-production. In these well-meant warnings there is danger of trouble, and Mr. Hoover very properly asks the country to look ahead a few months before deciding that food production ought to be checked for the purpose of avoiding the waste inseparable from overstocked markets.
Mr. Hoover, however, looks further ahead than the pessimists. He shows that when peace comes, the world, save next May, new markets will be opened for surplus food. Not all the consumers by any means are in the countries of the allies. Enemy nations, when trade restrictions are abolished, are certain to be heavy buyers of foodstuffs. Instead of a surplus, there is likely to be a shortage when the hungry peoples of Europe are enabled to order what they need after four years of scant rations. Mr. Hoover understands the situation about better than men whose sources of information are limited. Therefore when he says the signing of peace terms will be followed by great activity in the food markets we may as well act upon his suggestions as to carrying the farmers along a while longer, and meanwhile, let no one be deceived by stories of over-production; the business of everyone who owns or has the use of arable land should be the production of the maximum quantity of foodstuffs.

GERMANY CAN HELP.

(Cleveland Plain Dealer)
In the proceedings that are certain to be brought against many high-placed criminals of imperial Germany the supposedly democratic Germany of today can be of real usefulness. If the new Germany is quite sincere in its protestations of enlightenment it will interpose no obstacle to the punishment of the men who were guilty of hatching the war or the international misdeeds who disgraced the German name by their atrocious conduct during the progress of the war.
It is not proposed to punish the German people for the crimes of the irresponsible bureaucracy and military autocrats. In these matters guilt is clearly individual. Germany has suffered with the other nations. Some realization of this fact has led to the overthrow of the German monarchies and the establishment of popular governments throughout Germany. The German people should do all in their power to facilitate the punishment of the guilty.
But it is not expected that the Germans will co-operate. The tyrants and military masters have been repudiated, but there is no strong feeling of resentment against the old regime. It is to be feared that the German resentment will rather be directed against the nations that are determined to see justice done. The crimes of Germans will probably be forgotten, and the "interference" of outsiders will be condemned as unwarranted.
Regardless of the German attitude the men whose names are in the black books of the European allies will be punished to trial, and many of them will be punished to death. The German people, in disagreement among the statesmen of the victorious nations. Crimes such as have been committed cannot be condoned without impairing the value of victory and without weakening the structure of peace which is now being built. The new Germany, by taking a stand in opposition, will only prove its own weakness is superficial, and that the German mind continues to work as it worked under the guidance of Hohenzollernism.

"PULL," PARDONS, PAROLE.

(Brooklyn Eagle)
By a Whitman parole board and under commutations by Whitman while he was governor, twelve notorious convicts in Sing Sing, all understood to have been out on sort or another, were turned loose on the streets of New York yesterday.
Five of these convicts were sent out from Brooklyn. One was a property-holding freeloader; one a burglar; one an assassin of women on our streets. The others were P. T. White, "de luxe" bandit, and Eddie Kinn, his man Friday. Joseph Elzhu, Knutman, lawyer, who swindled widows and orphans out of $200,000, is not out yet, but "will go free in a few days."
The former sales manager of the Magna Paint Co., a chairman, a member of "good society," held up and robbed the company's paymaster of $200,000, roll money. Justice Aspinall, the crime being confessed, gave him a minimum sentence of seven and a half years, a maximum sentence of fourteen years. By commutation, White is liberated after serving only half of the court's minimum. It was mere ordinary fair to treat Cinnin the tool in the same way.
Probably the freeloader will go on setting fire. The burglar will go on entering houses; the assassin of women will be emboldened by his luck. As for the highway robbers, whether they reform or not, the miscarriage of justice will encourage others, and pay-roll money in transit will need to be more carefully guarded.
The Eagle has been and is against the accepted operation of the parole board. It is against letting "pull" interfere with legal sentences by commutation or pardon. It is against what has been done in this state. It is glad that the policy of Governor Smith points to something more responsible, more dignified of the courts, more compatible with a decent degree of deterrence, more compatible with the security of our law-abiding citizens.

GARDENS.

(Indianapolis News)
Last year many people felt that they must offer some excuse for putting on old clothes and working in their gardens. They spoke of their war gardens as "the well-worn reason" for doing their bit. Now that there has been a sharp lessening in the demand for food, those who have gardens have been suggesting that the efforts of 1918 be directed toward vegetable gardens. There is no reason to apologize for working in the garden and the garden is no other name than the one that it always has had. Garden catalogues have become an art and the magazines are overflowing with the seed houses. Those who have gardens know the attractions of the garden. They are not hunting for excuses. All that want is an early spring and hot weather.
Statistics were prepared last fall to show how many people raised vegetables, how much money was realized from the sale of surplus products, how much food was saved and so on. Statistics might also have been submitted to show how much happiness came from working out of doors, how many good nights of sleep came as a result of the fresh air and exercise, how many bed tempers were improved and how many jaded appetites were tempted by something fresh from one's own plot. Most people who have gardens last spring and summer will be repeaters this year. Those who did not have this happy experience do not know what they have missed, but doubtless they have heard from their neighbors. It is none too early to begin planning. Seeds may be bought, plots may be planned on paper, and still more important, the ground may be secured. Choice garden plots are something like the best theatrical seats—they go early. Those who have no ground at home can easily get some elsewhere. It need not be an acre and it need not be a whole city lot. A little ground is sufficient to furnish the exercise and the healthful and profitable results.

CONSCIENTIOUS OBJECTORS.

(Ohio State Journal)
The release of the 113 conscientious objectors from Fort Leavenworth by order of the war department was the true course to pursue with these foolish people. They have been punished and to punish them longer will only tickle them too much. It was perfectly proper in the first place to regard a conscientious objection as a bar to military service. It would be perfectly reasonable and just to put these objectors in the first line of battle and compel them to fight or run, and then if they ran there would be a good deal against them. Making them fight does away with all conscientious objection. If they have to do what they are religiously opposed to doing they have no ground for their scruples. It is one of the purposes of government to make men do what they object to doing. There could be no government if the objectors ruled. And all objections could be made conscientious. The conscience is easily abused; it depends upon the individual, who and what he is, which circumstance should not relieve a person from his duty to the common good.

One Reason Girls Steal.

This bit of philosophy of a reformed girl thief was contained in an article in the People's Home Journal on the value of the probation law: "A girl can no more live without a few pleasures and pretty possessions than she can without food. Take it from me, girls don't want to steal. If they knew how to earn things for themselves, they wouldn't be bad. Some day there'll be a way found for girls to earn what they need before they get into trouble, not after. Then the whole world'll be different."

Refresh Your Principles.

When a man starts afresh, either with the newness of a new year or with the stimulus of altered circumstances or with the inspiration of a new work, what his start ought to do for him is to refresh the deepest principles by which he lives.—Phillips Brooks.

Like as Not; Like as Not.

As children we used to think that the sardines came from Sardinia. Now Maine cats and sends out $100,000,000 worth a year, and claims there are no better ones on the market. We suppose the olive oil fish are packed in comes from Mississippi or South Carolina.—Brooklyn Eagle.

How Phrase Originated.

The English-speaking people frequently, when they see somebody doing something they like, exclaim: "That's the ticket," meaning that it is the proper method of procedure. The real saying is, "That is the etiquette," or the right and proper way of doing.

PARISIAN GIRL IS GOOD LOOKER AT TEN FEET RANGE

Lieutenant Wright Declares Art Has Made Great Strides Since Garden of Eden
Visits Paris After Helping Tidy Up the Battle Grounds Littered With Junk.
"Even if she is not the most beautiful girl in the world, at 10 feet range she tricks you into believing it," declares Lieutenant Wright, who is now in New York in a letter to the Newark Advocate, describing the Parisian mademoiselle which the Yankee soldier encountered on the streets of France's capital while on leave.
"They interweave the cosmopolitan throng in Paris like dandelions on a lawn," Wright says. "She is smiling, chic and made-up to perfection. Art has traveled a long way since Mother Eve hung out two fig leaves on that first Monday morning."
Wright's letter, written December 26 at Senay, France, describes the work in deep mourning and weather, salesmen, conductors, hobbling on wooden legs, extending suggestively gloved hands for your tip, or wearing the croix de guerre ribbon with several stars, on their shabby civilian coats. But in the show houses are good comedies, in the cafes are good music, and in the streets are good people. The Chaplins and the Charlies Chaplins are in America, and on the Avenue des Italiens swirls the most cosmopolitan throng you will find in the world, save New York. French officers in their natty blue with fronts resplendent with medals, Algerians in their shabby blue, and in much the same khaki of our boys; Italians with their formless visored caps; Americans in Sam Browns; Australians with their picturesque Gainsboro sombreros caught up on the side, strapping Canadians; Blue Devils with their black and white uniforms of frock-coated civilians, and interwoven through all, like dandelions on a lawn, the face of the Parisian mademoiselle, smiling, chic, made-up to perfection. Art has traveled quite a long journey since Mother Eve hung out two fig-leaves that first Monday morning. And even if she is not the most beautiful girl in the world, at ten feet range she tricks you into believing so.
"Of course you take a motor-bus and see the sights of Paris. The art treasures of the Louvre and the Tuileries have gone south for the winter, but now that Hindenburg's sword has been laid away with moth balls, they will soon be coming back. And you note no trace of the aerial bomb and the long range shell, except in the ruins of the city. Not a single falling bomb crashed out over a hundred lives last Easter. The Concorde and Champs Elysees are crowded with captured German cannon and tanks, the little chaise plain of Geymeyer festooned with wreaths, stands between two of the victims in the court yard of the Invalides. And all the buildings are gay with the flags of the allies.
"It is a wonderful privilege to be over here in France; a treat to get to Paris. But the more you travel the more you are to be an American. It isn't privilege—it's growing wisdom."
Great is Power of Love.
If you would gain mankind, the best way is to appear to love them; and the best way of appearing to love them is to love them in reality.—J. Bentham.

"Mother and Her Pets Love Candy Cascarets"

Careful mothers know that Cascarets in the home means less sickness, less trouble, less worry, less cost. When one of the kiddies has a white tongue, tainted breath, sour stomach or a cold, a Cascaret quickly and harmlessly works the poisons from the liver and bowels and all is well again.

Dedicated to the Weather Man. The day is cold and dark and dreary. It blows for the winds are never weary. The Georgette clings to the shapely shape. And at every gust the bad men gape—And the day is dark and dreary.—Florida Times-Union.

This rhyme evokes our protestations. For the windy day has compensations. The various sights, and the sights go by. Contribute, as they meet the eye. To the gawdy of nations.

And if that is slow in action. And your weakness lasts too long. Munch some garlic and an onion. And your friends will call you strong.—Houston Post.

And if vain are all these labors. Learn to sing and I'll be bound. That your poor, long-suffering neighbor Will say you're entirely sound.

TO MOTHERS! While all children detest castor oil, calomel, pills and laxatives, they really love to take Cascarets because they taste like candy. Cascarets work the nasty bile, sour fermentations and constipation poison from the child's tender stomach, liver and bowels without pain or griping. Cascarets never disappoint the worried mother. Each 10 cent box of Cascarets contains directions for children aged one year old and upwards as well as for adults.

WOMEN ARE BOOSTING IT

YOU CAN'T FOOL THEM
Once you have shown them and got their confidence they will stick through thick and thin to what they know and believe is a good thing.
Hundreds of women in our city are going around today with joy in their hearts and a new lease on life and health where before each day was one long "nervous drag of misery."
"It's not the work you do, it's the way you feel that makes the drudgery, you cannot get ahead when you go to bed all in, too tired to sleep and get up in the morning half dead. Believe me I know. I certainly was a nervous wreck, every task a load, no ambition, thin, haggard and pale, an old woman before my time. Look at me now. Work is a pleasure. I am just bubbling over with good spirits, the picture of health, cheeks rosy and full of life, color in my ironized blood can give, while my phosphate-fed nerves are as steady as a clock, nothing worries me, I sleep like a top and feel like a girl of sixteen. Take it from me, I want Phosphated Iron to get all of its credit, too much cannot be said in its praise, and all my friends are boosting it."
There is no need of any man or woman going around with that tired all-in feeling, or any form of nervousness, if they take a brace, and stick up to package of Phosphated Iron. It sure will spruce you up and make you feel like a live wire once you get busy.
Special Notice: To insure doctors and their patients getting the Genuine Phosphated Iron we have put in capsules and so little like a girl of sixteen. For sale by Evans' drug store and leading druggists everywhere.

Readers' Viewpoint

Replies to Critic.
Editor Advocate. In a recent issue was a criticism by Rev. E. M. O'Boylan and it is my desire to set right the present members of the city council.

The difficulty with the writer is that he did not set forth the year in which the council entered into a contract to pay 9 cents per kilowatt for electric current. There have been and always will be good men serving the city in the council and otherwise.

The record shows that on June 7, 1909 an ordinance was offered, by W. D. Fulton to regulate, for a period of ten years the price which the "Licking Light and Power Co." was to charge for current. A motion to suspend the rules and pass the ordinance was made by Fulton seconded by Member Oliver Irwin.

The motion to suspend passed without a negative vote. Messrs W. D. Fulton, Edward Gilbert Oliver Irwin, Jos. Kuster Jr., Elmer Orr and L. A. Stare voting for. At the time the city of Newark was divided into only four wards. The rules suspended the final vote showed two members, Messrs Gilbert and Baker refused to vote, Mr. Stare voted no.

It is worthy of note that prior to the passage of this ordinance, to be exact April 5, of the same year, Gottlieb Flohr member elect, resigned and he was succeeded by Mr. Gilbert. It is worthy of a passing glance also that "Licking Light and Power Co." was organized at the time by President M. M. Gillette and Secretary William C. Miller.

This winter has one regret. Some months ago the present city council asked for an increase in price. It was referred to the law committee of the present council. That committee has only broken the silence of months to say that it will not report on it while the present litigation between the Newark Natural Gas company and the city is still pending.

Our record as that our critic was not present at one of the meetings when the financial side of the present situation was come into. I believe it is the consensus of opinion of the members of this body that the tax paying public and others are always welcome at these meetings. I for one would be glad to have them there and be guided by their well advised criticism. The door is never locked and the invitation is in good faith.

Let me correct the critic. The Electric Light and Power Co. offered to furnish the current to the city for street lighting at eleven mills per kilowatt, to be measured at the city switch boards.

The writer shares the feeling of the critic that no further and unnecessary burdens should be placed on the tax payers. The electors have the remedy in their hands, the initiative and referendum guaranteed by the present constitution of Ohio. It has been exercised but once last December and by the liquor dealers of the city.

In the matter of attendance on council meetings by tax payers I have been a member of the council for five years, and have missed but one meeting, and one emergency. I hope my critic will take kindly the invitation to attend the council meetings, as it is extended in the best spirit and it will be hostile to the members of the board if he does not.

The speaker of the body which is composed of human beings with good and bad intentions, which is a part of the body.

Yours very respectfully,
Frank Knutler
Councilman

It will be worth while to attend the Franklin Garage Institute Feb. 10-11. L. L. Pugh, who is a popular and instructive speaker.

Honey in Africa. Quantities of honey are found in the African forests by the natives in hollow trees. The honey is generally at the summit of the tree, and the men knock down the tree and smoke the bees out of their lodging with burning grass. The honey is then quickly collected and taken to camp.

How Wind Travels. When you are discussing the wind you must know that a gentle wind travels about five miles per hour, a high wind about 30 to 45 miles per hour, and a great hurricane 80 to 100 miles per hour. The velocity of the earth on its own axis exceeds, it is believed, 1,000 miles an hour. The velocity of the earth around the sun is calculated to be 68,000 miles per hour, and the velocity of the moon to be 2,273 miles per hour.
